Importance: High

Hi all -

Our copyedit file came in for the Reframing Risk paper (word document attached, along with our last submission for reference) and is due in 2 days. I've addressed the comments (there are only really two), and re-read the manuscript, and think it is good to go. If you can, please review today and I will submit to the journal before leaving town Saturday.

Thanks all!

Maureen

Subject: Assignment: Copyedit for AJPH-201618843R1 Ready for Review

MS ID#: AJPH-201618843R1
MS TITLE: A Public Health Perspective on 21st Century Risk Assessment MS AU: Dr Maureen R Gwinn
ISSUE: 06/07/2017

Dear Dr. Gwinn,

Your file has been copyedited and is ready for your review. Revisions are due within 3 business days after receipt of this e-mail.

Please visit AJPH, enter your username and password, and click "Author Login" to log into your Author Main Menu. Under "Production" you can view your Current Task Assignments. From there, navigate to the appropriate manuscript and download the assigned files by mousing over the "Action Links" menu and clicking on "Assignment Files."

Please mark your corrections directly to the Word file using Track Changes and save the file as AuthorName_MS#_draft-edit_Revised.doc.

All of AJPH's copyeditors are extremely experienced and have been working with the Journal for at least 2 years; the majority have been on staff for at least 5 years. They are professional editors and are very familiar with Journal style and preferred Journal editing standards. However, sometimes errors are made or terminology is altered. If you encounter problems with the editing of your manuscript, please contact the copyeditor directly for an explanation. Most problems that you encounter can be resolved by communicating your concerns to the copyeditor and beginning a dialog. However, should you and the copyeditor reach an impasse you may contact Michael Henry, Senior Associate Production Editor, at michael.henry@apha.org for a formal decision.

When you are ready to submit your revised file, return to <http://ajph.edmgr.com/> and navigate to the appropriate article under your "Current Task Assignments." Upload the saved file by clicking on the "Submit Task" Action link. In the new screen that opens, click the "Upload File" button; a new window will open. Choose "Author Reviewed MS" from the File Type drop-down menu, and type your file description (Author Revised MS) in the space provided. "Browse" to the corrected file and click "Upload This File" to upload the file and close the window. You will then be returned to the "Submit Task" window.

Please do not upload a previous version of the manuscript; extensive XML coding has been performed on the file to aid composition and online functionality. Reverting to a previous version file will effectively erase the coding that took place. Therefore, production staff will not accept any previous-version files that are submitted.

In the Correspondence window, note any problems or concerns with the paper that you may have. Next, confirm that the correct file was uploaded by checking the files listed at the bottom of the screen. If an incorrect file was uploaded, click the "Remove" link to remove the bad file, and upload a new file by clicking the "Upload File" button. When all files are correct, click "Submit Production Task." The next screen will be a Confirmation screen where you can return to your assigned tasks or to the main menu. If you encounter any problems with Editorial Manager, please contact Michael Henry at michael.henry@apha.org.

Sincerely,
Kelly
